

“ta” as in talk

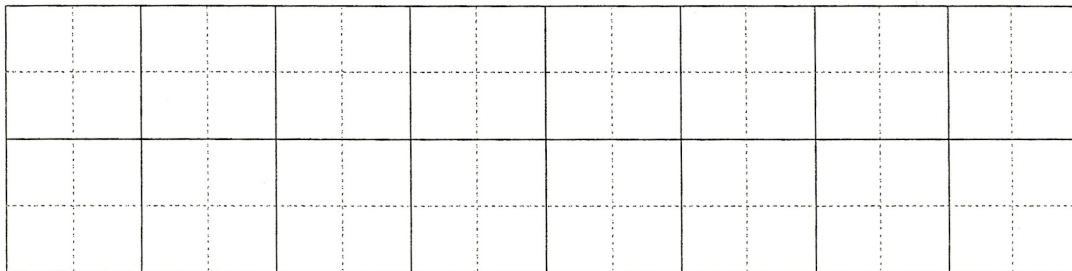

“t” and “a” spell “ta”

Writing Tip “ta” has four strokes and all four are stops.

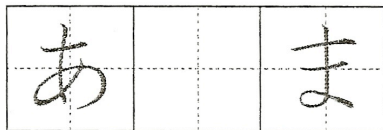

Trace these characters.

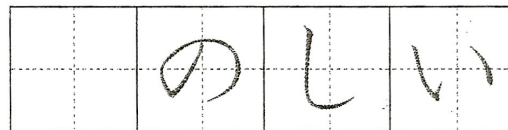

Write the character in the boxes below, and then circle the one you think is best.

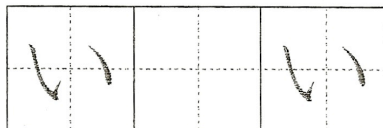

1. a ta ma (head)

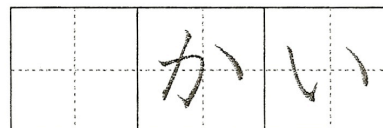

2. ta no shi i (fun; enjoyable)

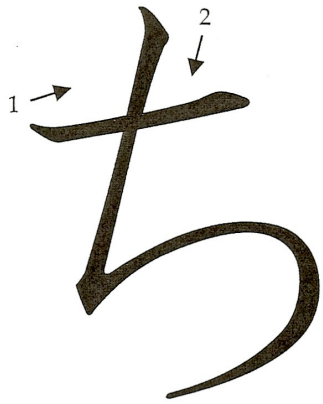

3. i ta i (Ouch!)

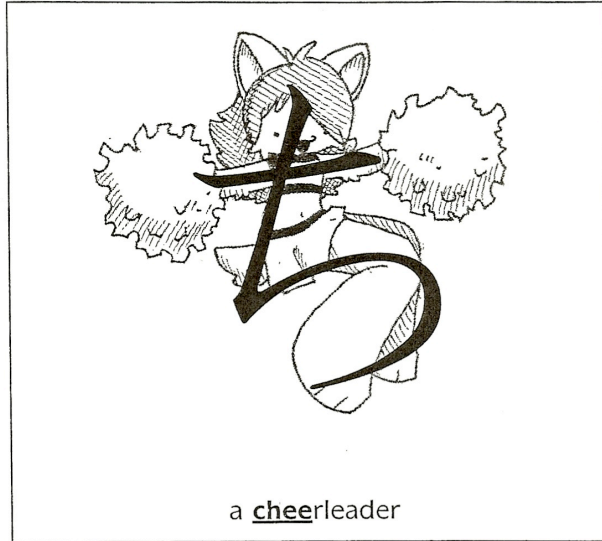

4. ta ka i (high; tall; expensive)

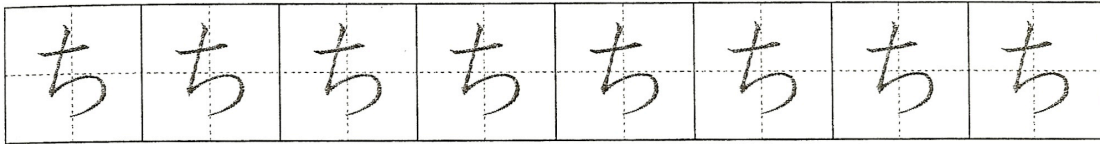

“chi” as in cheer

a cheerleader

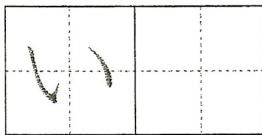

Writing Tip “chi” has two strokes: 1) a stop and 2) brush.

Trace these characters.

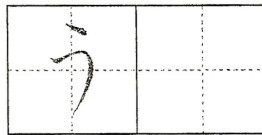

Write the character in the boxes below, and then circle the one you think is best.

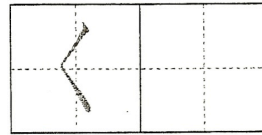

1. i chi (one)

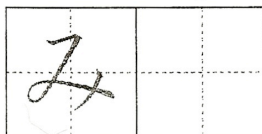

2. u chi (home; house)

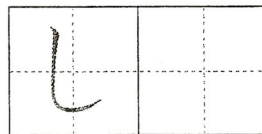

3. ku chi (mouth)

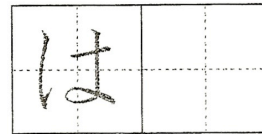

4. mi chi (road; path)

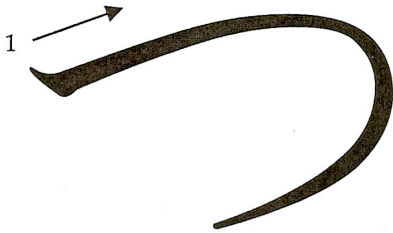

5. shi chi (seven)

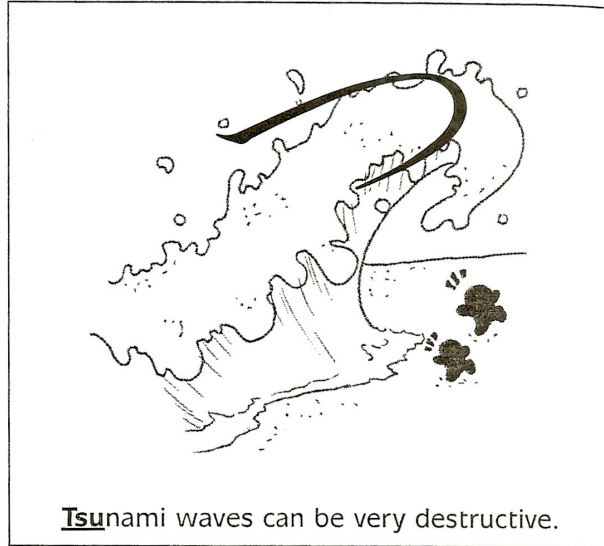

6. ha chi (eight; bee)

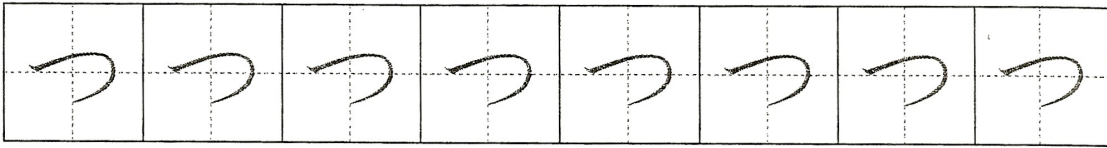

“tsu” as in tsunami

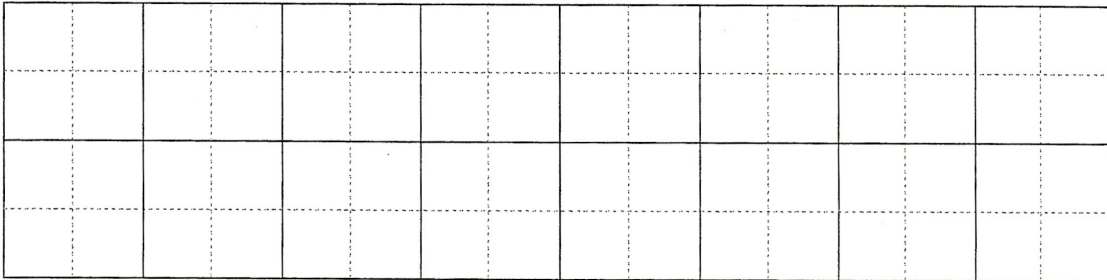

Writing Tip “tsu” has one stroke: a brush.

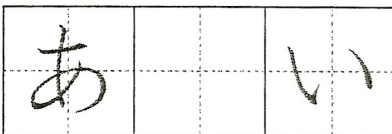

Trace these characters.

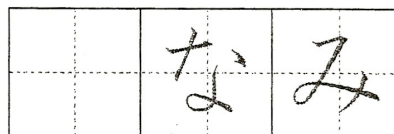

Write the character in the boxes below, and then circle the one you think is best.

1. a tsu i (hot)

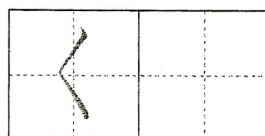

2. tsu na mi (tsunami wave)

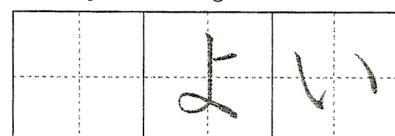

3. i tsu (when)

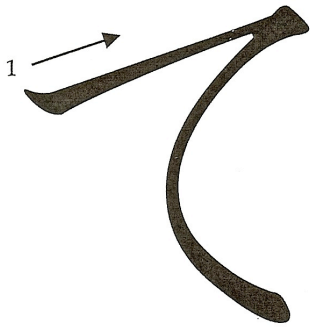

4. ku tsu (shoes)

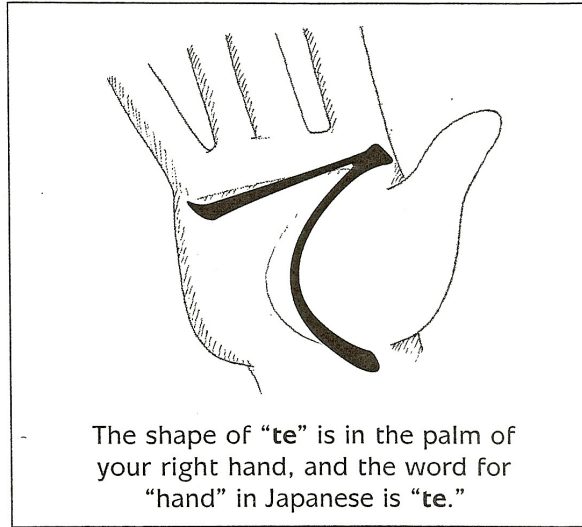

5. tsu yo i (strong)

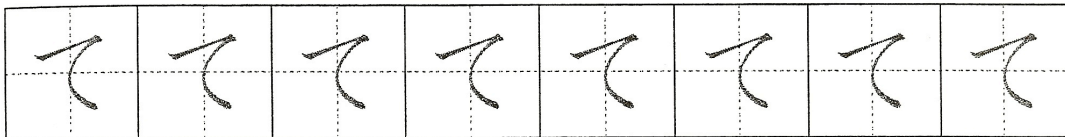

“te” as in ten

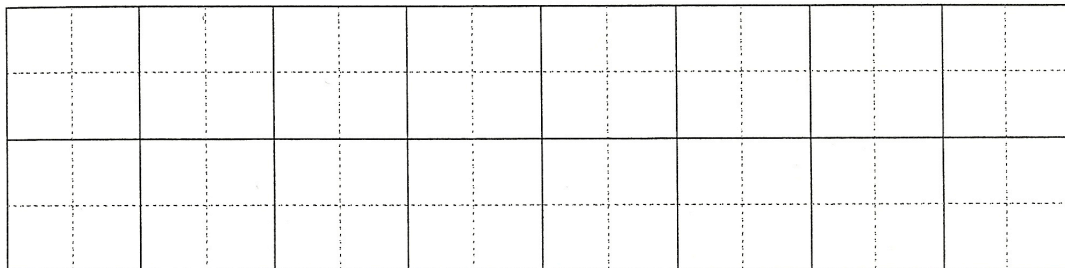

Writing Tip “te” has one stroke: a stop.

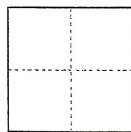

Trace these characters.

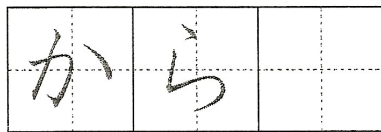

Write the character in the boxes below, and then circle the one you think is best.

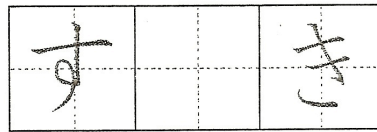

1. te (hand)

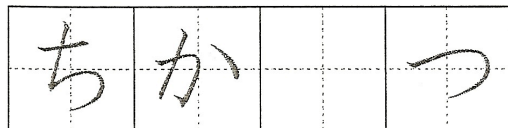

2. ka ra te (karate)

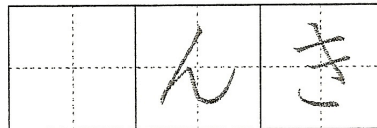

3. su te ki (lovely; cool; superb)

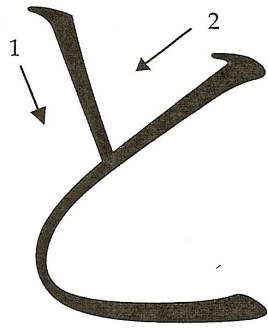

4. chi ka te tsu (subway)

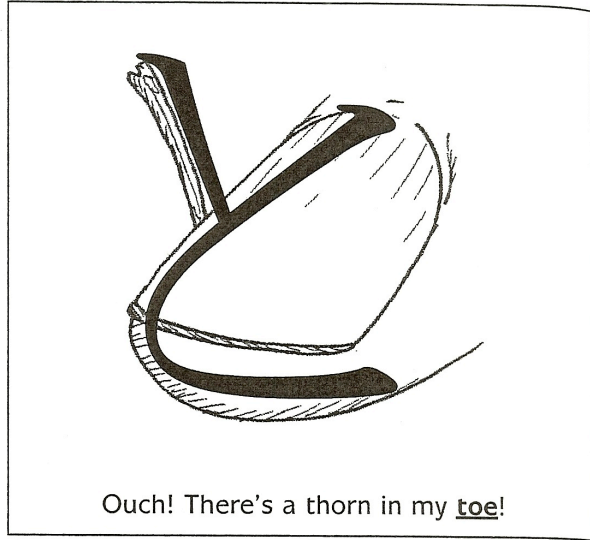

5. te n ki (weather)

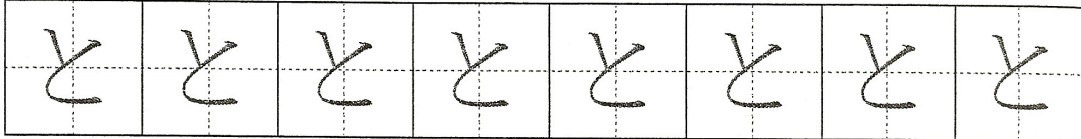

“to” as in toe

Writing Tip “to” has two strokes and both are stops.

Trace these characters.

Write the character in the boxes below, and then circle the one you think is best.

1. to ra (tiger)

		ら

2. to ri (bird)

		り

3. hi to (person)

		ひ

4. so to (outside)

そ

5. o to to i (day before yesterday)

お				い